VALERIE CAPRONI, United States District Judge:

WHEREAS on July 8, 2021, the parties called Chambers with a discovery dispute; and WHEREAS the parties explained that Plaintiff's 30(b)(6) witness invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination at his deposition;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that upon receipt of the transcript from today's deposition, Defendant may file a letter with the Court, no more than three pages in length, indicating whether Defendant plans to file a motion related to this issue. At that time, the Court will decide whether to grant leave to file such a motion and if leave is granted, the Court will set a full briefing schedule. The Court will refrain from deciding the cross Motions for Summary Judgment until after this issue is resolved.

SO ORDERED.
